

BEAR'S PATH (KARHUNPOLKU) HIKING TRAIL

Bear's Path hiking trail is located in the small town of Lieksa, Finnish Karelia, near the Russian border. It is part of the extensive Karelian Circular Trek, a thousand-kilometre-long route network for outdoor activities. Parts of it follow the banks of canoeing routes, the Ruunaa Rapids and the River Jongunjoki. This makes it possible for you to canoe part of the trail. The trail can be walked, bicycled or skied either partly or entirely – in either direction. On the route you can meet canoeists, hikers, bikers, horse-back riders, cross-country skiers, sleddog teams and snowmobile drivers. Remember to respect the rights of your fellow trekkers!

Length	The trail is 133 km long and connected to several other trails: Wolf trail (Susitaival), 90 km; Nature paths of Patvinsuo National Park; Tour of Lake Pitkäjärvi; Tour of the Ruunaa Rapids; The old church road in the village of Nurmijärvi and the paths round Änäkäinen II World War battle fields. From Rapid Aittokoski there is a connecting path to the Tour of Lake Mujejärvi and the recreational fishing area of Saramo located in the town of Nurmes.
Map	Guide- and address map of Lieksa 1:100 000 - www.infokartta.fi/lieksa . Available from Karelia Expert Tourist Service Lieksa.
Route	The trail runs along paths of varying quality, duckboards and forest roads. You should take into account that most of the trail runs through uninhabited wilderness areas.
Marks	The trail is marked with orange spots on tree trunks.
Accommodation	There are several lean-to forest shelters, wilderness cabins and tourist accommodation services along the trail. A tent is not necessary.
Campfire	Campfire may be built only in special sites marked for this purpose. Please, use firewood sparingly. If there is no firewood left in the storeroom, use only wood lying on the ground. Remember that a real camper does not rip off bark from birch trunks for kindling.
Food	You can replenish your supplies in Ruunaa Hiking Area.
Water	Water in the area's natural water bodies is drinkable as such. However, do not use standing water near the water's edge or that in puddles.
Equipment	Take sturdy hiking boots or wellington boots with you because of some damp places. Otherwise you have to take off your shoes for some crossings. Pack along enough warm clothes. Those made of natural materials are the best. During a period of forest fire warning (metsäpalovaroitus), you need a camp cooker. Remember to take matches and an axe with you. Carrying along some kindling may also prove worthwhile. Do not fill your backpack with unnecessary plastic waste. Remember to pack basic first aid equipment and an insect repellent. A compass is not essential for this route. GSM mobile phones work considerably well along the route.
Fishing	You can fish with hook and line in lakes and ponds, where it has not been specifically prohibited. For other types of fishing those over 18 years of age need a national fishing licence and a permission from the holder of the waters. Those under 18 years of age need only the permission of the holder of the waters. Along the trail you need mainly a national lure fishing permit issued by the Finnish Forest and Park Service, or that of Eastern Finland. Ruunaa and Änäkäinen are exceptions: for these areas you need a special fishing permit issued by the Service. Permits can be bought at the local office of the Service in Lieksa: Urheilukatu 3 A, 81700 Lieksa, tel. +358 (0)205 64 5500.

Time	Reserve enough time for the hike. Admiring beautiful landscapes and examining sights takes time. Along the trail there are restored battlefields, fisheries, an Information Centre and tourist attractions, which can only be reached by turning off the path. Allow 6 – 8 days for the entire hike.
By mountain bike	Driving mountain bike is prohibited along the paths of Patvinsuo National Park. Pass the Park along a sand road and enjoy the scenery by foot. Otherwise you can drive your bike along freely with the exceptions mentioned in the route description. Drive carefully to save the delicate nature. Please, wheel your bike steep uphill.
By ski	Bear's Path suits cross-country skiing fairly well. Use special skis designed for deep snow. Make use of ponds and swamps beside the path and ski along them. Parts of Bear's Path are used for snowmobile tours during wintertime, which makes skiing along the snowmobile tracks easy. However, remember to watch out for the actual users of the tracks, i.e. snowmobile drivers.
If you encounter a bear...	... it usually takes to its heels. If not – keep still.
Transport connections	Bus Check the timetable from Bus station, tel. +358 (0)600 922 40 or from Karelia Expert Tourist Service, Lieksa, tel. +358 (0)13 248 5312.
